

Nikki Philips - Administration

Nikki is an experienced bookkeeper with over 15 years' experience in her sector. She has gained a wealth of experience working closely with clients either remotely or at their premises. She has an excellent knowledge of many software packages and how they work to achieve the desired results for her clients.

Nikki joined Ainscough Associates in 2014. She works very closely with Sarah Nash where she provides support in both finance and administration for clients, her main duties being purchasing, organising of training, recruitment and all associated tasks that are related with this.

Nikki is a member of the Institute of Certified Bookkeepers and holds her Level II Bookkeeping Certificate. She is an integral part of the team and helps to provide a good support network behind the scenes for both Ainscough Associates, its clients and those who also work within her team.

When Nikki is not working you will find her outside enjoying her horses.
